Daniel A. Byrd, Associate

Daniel Byrd is an associate at Zeisler & Zeisler whose work focuses on commercial litigation. Prior to joining Z&Z, Daniel worked in business immigration law and helped dozens of immigrants obtain H-1B visas to work in the United States.

Daniel received his J.D. from University of Connecticut School of Law. During law school, he served as a judicial intern in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut for The Honorable Victor A. Bolden. Daniel was also a student in the University of Connecticut Criminal Trial Clinic where he successfully represented his client through an application for a Supervised Diversionary Program. Daniel served as an Executive Editor of the Connecticut Public Interest Law Journal and was a member of the Connecticut Moot Court Board.
